FAQ

What does it take to succeed?

If you are people orientated, success driven, outgoing and enjoy networking with others, self-motivated and prepared to do the activity and hard work, you will have all the ingredients to become highly successful.

Can I operate this business part-time?

Yes, it is a great full or part-time opportunity. If you choose to remain a full time employee and operate your business part-time, this is absolutely fine. This will also prove to be a very successful business model if you have sufficient spare time on your hands. Remember, this is all about the activity.

Am I limited to an area?

You can operate anywhere in the country. This is the perfect scenario for total flexibility.

Will there be on-going training and support?

At any time during office hours, support is available. Just e-mail support@nsbc.africa or contact the support centre and a success manager will assist you. There will also be many success seminars and conferences in the road ahead.

What are the earnings potential?
